

Carnival Flip Flop Beach Party a "Chill" Bash!

PALM BEACH - Last Sunday, an official Carnival event took place called Carnival Flip Flop Beach Party. At this event a beach was created with white sand at the square at the Village, between Chino Latino and Señor Frogs. It was incredible to see the enormous amount of people at the event that enjoyed the unique beach setting in the middle of the hotel area.

There were also positive comments on Balashi Chill, the new beer by the local Balashi National Brewery that was launched officially during this event. Also great comments on the taste of Balashi Chill, the presentation of the bottle and on the event itself where Tsunami Band, DJ 101, MC Mark Benson and Dushi Band created a fantastic ambiance for everyone present.

Many people loved the official Balashi Chill Flip-Flops that they were able to receive by buying Balashi Chill at the participating bars, which were: Chino Latino, Señor Frogs, Sunchi's, Upstairs lounge, 5 Guys Aruba, Papillon and Shop and Go minimarket. At 8:30 pm, Mrs. Tecla Kelly of SAC (Carnival organization) gave the signal to start the official ceremony of the launching of Balashi Chill by showing the tv commercial. Before that, 'behind the scenes' shots were visible on the big screens to show everyone how the day of the tv commercial shooting took place. Telearuba and 24ora.com passed the event live on tv.

Only positive feedback came from the persons present and the TV viewers with regards to the beautiful TVcommercial of Balashi Chill that was revealed. They loved that the commercial is a local production, filmed in Aruba by Animagic with the music of our very own Hildward Croes with arrangement of Chucho Hoek and Dave Cousins as the singer. Balashi National Brewery would like to thank everyone that was part of the setup of the activity and also a big thank you to Aruba that is supporting its newest local beer Balashi Chill. □
